

49th Annual St. Norbert College TOM BARRY INVITATIONAL Cross Country Meet

The meet is named in memory of Tom Barry, who was a 1977 graduate of St. Norbert College. Tom participated in cross country and track and field at St. Norbert College.

In October, 1990, he collapsed and died of a heart attack after completing a 12K road race. Tom, 35, was the Men's cross country coach at St. Norbert College and taught second grade at St. Bernard grade school in Green Bay.
